TO: WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT COMMUNITY

SUBJECT: DOL/ETA REGION 6 MEANS BUSINESS: TRAINING OPPORTUNITIES

This information bulletin announces that the U.S. Department of Labor/Employment and Training Administration (DOL/ETA) Region 6 will sponsor a series of in-person and online training events focused on different aspects of the strategic and operational needs faced by the workforce development professionals in serving the business customer. The Workforce Investment Division encourages interested individuals at the State and local levels to take advantage of these training opportunities.

There is no enrollment fee to participate in any of these events; however, enrollment is limited for the April 28-29, 2004, training session to be held at the Regional Office in San Francisco. Participants will be responsible to pay travel and per diem expenses to attend this event.

For registration, contact Diane Walton at walton.diane@dol.gov or (415) 975-4639 or Todd Yamamoto at yamamoto.todd@dol.gov or (415) 975-4666. Additional information on these events or previous business-related online symposium events sponsored by DOL/ETA Region 6 is available at Region 6 Means Business Web site.
